“The Bridge Builder”

“An old man going along a highway
Came at evening cold and gray
To a chasm vast and deep and wide,
The old man crossed in the twilight dim;
The swollen stream had no fear for him.
But he turned when safe on the other side
And built a bridge to span the tide.

‘Old man’, said a pilgrim near,
‘You’re wasting your time with building here.
You never again will pass this way.
You have crossed the chasm deep and wide;
Why build you this bridge at eventide?’
The builder lifted his old gray head.

‘Good friend, on the path I have come’, said he,
‘There followed after me today
A youth whose feet must pass this way.
This chasm that has been as aught to me
To that fair-haired youth may a pitfall be,
He too must cross in the twilight dim,
Good friend, I am building this bridge for him’.”

“If we notice little pleasures as we notice little pains,
If we quite forget our losses and remember all our gains,
If we look for peoples’ virtues
And their faults refuse to see,
What a comfortable and happy place
This old world would be.”
